USEFUL INFORMATION

ABOUT LISBON, PORTUGAL

Lisbon is exceptional – the abundant sunshine, the great weather, the historic city with an enviable lifestyle, the vibrant culture and the proximity to the beaches. The city manages to charm almost everyone who visits that coming back to explore more of the city's envious lifestyle is inevitable. Some even fall in love with Lisbon so passionately that they move in and become residents! If you find the opportunity - explore the city!

About Lisbon:

KNOW THE PORTUGUESE BASICS

It's always nice to start with a friendly "Olá" ("Hello") and to say "Obrigado" ("Thank you") if you're male or "Obrigada" if you're female. After a transaction, responding with "De nada" ("You're welcome") is appreciated. Adding a "Por favor" ("Please") with a smile or "Desculpa" ("Sorry") if you accidentally bump into someone shows kindness. And when leaving, a warm "Adeus" ("Goodbye") with a friendly wave can brighten someone's day.

FOR YOUR COMFORT

Lisbon is a city of seven hills, and if that bears meaning to you, it means you'll have to be kind to your feet, at this time to add to it, there will be rain. Therefore, we advise, comfortable/non-slippery shoes, raincoats and umbrella. Please always watch your steps, not to slip.

BEWARE OF PICKPOCKETS IN PUBLIC TRANSPORT AND CROWDED PLACES

Like most touristy places, it is quite unfortunate that such incidents like pickpocketing exist, and Lisbon is no exception.

DON'T PAY TOO MUCH FOR BEER, OR COFFEE

You'd expect to pay €5 or €8 for beer in cities like London, Paris, and Copenhagen, but not in Lisbon. Typical Portuguese beer, such as Sagres or Superbock, ranges from €1,50 for an imperial (0.33 ml) and €3 or 4 for a caneca (a pint-size). Unless you go to fancy bars for imported or craft beers.

WATCH THE SUNSETS IN MIRADOUROS

Another pleasurable thing you can do in Lisbon is to spend time watching the sunsets in a few of the miradouros that punctuate on top of Lisbon's hills.
